YOURSTORY

October 2021

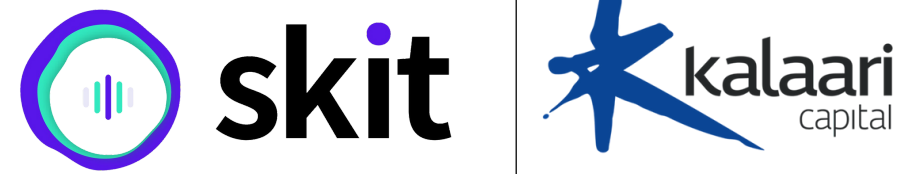

From 2021, Seed

We welcome Creative Galileo, a recent addition to the Kalaari Family.

Creative Galileo is a gamified learning platform focused on transforming early education through a combination of technology, entertainment, and pedagogy.

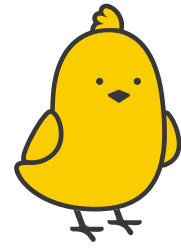

We are proud to partner with Prerna A Jhunjunwala and Nikhil Naik in their journey to transforming the early learning landscape for the global learners of the 21st century.

Since 2017, Seed

Skit recently won the Entrepreneur India Tech Startup of the Year 2021 award in the Artificial Intelligence category.

We're privileged to be early partners with Sourabh Gupta & Akshay Deshraj in their mission to redefine the way businesses interact with their customers.

Since 2017, Series A

Koo's user base has now touched 15M, with 5M users added in the last quarter.

Excited by the incredible growth shown by Aprameya Radhakrishna, Mayank Bidawatka, & the entire Koo team.

Since 2021, Seed

Digantara was part of the historic launch of ISpA- Indian Space Association, an association dedicated to accelerating the growth of the Indian space industry and contributing to the Government of India's ambition of becoming Aatmanirbhar and a global leader in the space sector.

Congratulations Anirudh Sharma, Rahul Rawat, and Tanveer Ahmed.

Since 2015, Series A

YourStory brought another stellar line up of speakers for its flagship Techsparks 2021 Summit.

Proud of the work done by Shradha Sharma & team over the last decade in fostering India's startup ecosystem.
